The Fairest Beauty by Melanie Dickerson

In this young adult fairy tale retelling, news arrives in Hagenheim claiming the young woman betrothed to the duke's son, Valten, is still alive. His younger brother, Gabe, defies his family to find Sophie himself. When Gabe arrives at the castle, Sophie must make a choice: go to the Cottage of the Seven and fend for herself, or trust the handsome stranger who seems ready to do anything to keep her safe. An enjoyable novel for the young and young at heart

The Beginner's Guide to Revenge by Marianne Musgrove

As a soldier's daughter, Romola has changed schools five times, always having to make new friends ... and now enemies. Meanwhile, Sebastian's mum is about to make the biggest mistake of their lives, unless Sebastian can find his dad in time to stop her.

Thrown together by chance, these two thirteen-year-olds set out to even the score. But once that big old ball of revenge starts rolling down the hill, there's not an awful lot they can do to stop it ... or is there?

If you found the perfect way to pay someone back, would you do it?

Connections by Grassroots Training

Connection looks at evangelism in a modern day context. In Connection you will explore God's mission to see all creation reconciled back to him, and how Jesus embodied this and gives us the example for mission to others. Learn where you fit into God's mission for the world through understanding the culture we live in, identifying where God is already at work, what part your story and the stories of others have to play, and how you are salt and light to the world.
